11 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Case No: 1:20-CR-00025 NONE-SKO

12
13 Plaintiff,

STIPULATION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES
AND DEFENDANT REGARDING PRODUCTION
OF PROTECTED INFORMATION AND
14 ~~[PROPOSED]~~ PROTECTIVE ORDER

15 v.

16 DANIEL VINCENT SALAZAR JR.,

Ctrm: 7

17 Defendant.
18

Hon. Sheila K. Oberto

19 This case involves charges related to the sexual exploitation of minors. The discovery in this 20 case contains private personal information related to the defendant and third parties (both adults and 21 minors), including but not limited to their names, dates of birth, physical descriptions, telephone
22 numbers and/or residential addresses as well as images of victims.

23 The parties desire to avoid both the necessity of large-scale redactions and the unauthorized
24 disclosure or dissemination of this personal information to anyone not a party to the court proceedings in 25 this matter, so the parties agree that entry of a protective order would be appropriate and facilitate the 26 expeditious exchange of information about the case.
27
28

1 As a result, defendant Daniel Vincent Salazar Jr., by and through his counsel of record, Matt
2 Lemke and / or Eric Kersten (defense counsel), and the United States of America, by and through
3 Assistant United States Attorney David Gappa, agree as follows:

4 1. This court may enter a protective order under Rule 16(d) of the Federal Rules of Criminal
5 Procedure, and the court's general supervisory authority.

6 2. The protective order will cover all discovery provided to or made available to defense
7 counsel as part of discovery in this case.

8 3. By signing this stipulation and protective order, defense counsel agree(s) not to share any 9 documents that contain protected information with anyone other than defense counsel's associated
10 attorneys, designated defense investigator(s), designated defense expert(s), and/or support staff. Defense
11 counsel may permit the defendant to view unredacted documents in the presence of his attorney(s), defense
12 investigator(s), and/or support staff. The parties agree that defense counsel, defense investigator(s), and 13 support staff shall not allow the defendant to copy or record protected information contained in the 14 discovery. The parties agree that defense counsel, defense investigator(s), and support staff may provide 15 the defendant with copies of documents, if any, from which protected information has first been redacted.

16 4. The discovery and information within it may be used only in connection with the litigation
17 of this case and for no other purpose. The discovery is now and will forever remain the property of the 18 United States of America (the government). Defense counsel will return the discovery to the government
19 at the conclusion of the case.

20 5. Defense counsel will store the discovery in a secure place and will use reasonable care to 21 ensure that it is not disclosed to anyone in violation of this agreement.

22 6. Defense counsel shall be responsible for advising the defendant, employees, and other
23 members of the defense team, and defense witnesses of the contents of this stipulation and order.

24 7. In the event that defendant substitutes counsel, undersigned defense counsel agrees to 25 withhold discovery from new counsel and to return any discovery provided to the government.

26 8. The government will make digital evidence (including contraband) available within the confines of 27 the Federal Bureau of Investigation office in Ripon, California; or other appropriate law enforcement facilities
28

1 approved by the government. The digital evidence (contraband) shall not be viewed by any person other than
2 defense counsel, and defense investigators and experts approved in advance by the government; and such viewing
3 shall be conducted only as necessary to prepare for defendant's defense. Arrangements for reviewing that material
4 can be made through FBI Special Agent Greg Wenning at 209-825-1172. Neither defense counsel nor any
5 representative of defense counsel will remove any contraband from the custody or control of the law enforcement 6 agency.
